PROCLAMATION

EXTENSION OF DECLARATION OF STATE OF EMERGENCY AND LOCAL DISASTER FOR THE CITY OF COLLINSVILLE, ILLINOIS

WHEREAS, in relation to the impact of the Coronavirus Disease 2019 ("COVID-19"), effective March 18, 2020, as Mayor for the City of Collinsville, Illinois, I issued a Proclamation that invoked a Declaration of State of Emergency and Local Disaster for the City of Collinsville, Illinois.

WHEREAS, on March 23, 2020, by City Ordinance No. 20-31, the Collinsville City Council did approve and ratify the original Declaration of State of Emergency and Local Disaster for the City of Collinsville, Illinois, and extended the Declaration and emergency authorities granted to the Mayor by said Ordinance for a continuous time period of twenty-eight (28) days until repealed or amended by the City Council.

WHEREAS, effective April 1, 2020, the Governor of the State of Illinois has extended the disaster proclamation for the State of Illinois to April 30, 2020.

THEREFORE, I, John Miller, Mayor of the City of Collinsville, under oath and pursuant to powers granted to me by 20 ILCS 3305/10 and 20 ILCS 3305/11 of the Illinois Emergency Management Agency Act, Section 8.32 of the Collinsville Municipal Code, and City Ordinance No. 20-31, and based on the reasons stated in the preambles recited herein and in the original Declaration, do hereby extend the Declaration a State of Emergency and Local Disaster in the City of Collinsville until April 30, 2020.

A. Posting. The City Manager shall provide copies of this Declaration to the news media and post copies at the City Hall, Police Station, Fire Station, Gateway Center, Water Department, Sewer Department, Street Department, and Aqua Park.

B. Filings. The City Manager shall arrange for filing of this Declaration with the City Clerk, Madison County Clerk, Saint Clair County Clerk, Township Clerk, Collinsville Community Unit School District #10, and the Mississippi Valley Public Library District.

This Declaration is effective commencing 12:01 o'clock a.m. on April 2, 2020.

April 2, 2020

John Miller
Mayor of the City of Collinsville
